Piny Mountain

Nettie Lucado was the Sunday night guest of the Barlow girls.

Madaline Bingham took a flying trip to Lynchburg last week.

The Mitchell boys are very frequent visitors of a certain party of Piny Mountain.

Mrs. W. H. S. Barlow is attending her daughter in Lynchburg, Mrs. I. L. Lucado.

Mr. Walter Shelton has caught two skunks in the past week.

The roads from Piny Mountain to Oakville are so bad that one of the Piny Mountain boys cannot get over them to fill his dates.

Mr. K. V. Barlow while returning home from his work, heard an awful noise in the woods but the animal has not yet been discovered.

Mr. Leonard Pippin is working with Mr. L. T. Lucado this coming year. Stick to your work boy you will have success.

We hope the Nowlin boys will soon return home, because we all would like to see them.

FOREST VIEW

News is just as scarce as it can be, this morning. The weather has been so cloudy and damp and roads so bad. No news stirring.

Many of our people have been getting their tobacco ready for market, and some have marketed part of their crops, but the prices don't sound encouraging as it did when they were selling through the organization, but I guess those who wanted all the pay at one time are satisfied, they ought to be.

Mr. Leslie Morris, of near Farmville, spent last Wednesday night in the home of R. W. Martin. He is now getting his tobacco over at the old home place ready for market. We were glad to see him back in his old neighborhood again.

Miss Cassie Nash, of Campbell, spent a few days last week in the home of her grand-father, T. J. Nash. She in company with Miss Erna Woolridge visited Misses Annie and Bessie Martin while there.

Mrs. N. L. Cheatham continues sick at her home near Spring Mill.

Miss Maggie Nash is visiting her sister, Mrs. Len Powell in Roanoke who has been sick.

Mr. W. L. Ford is better after being on the sick list.

In Memorian

In sad, but loving remembrance of my dear son, Buford Coleman, who departed this life Jan. 30, 1925.

The charms of life from me have fled,
And hopes that once were bright
Have all been hidden with my dead,
And hidden from my sight.

Dear Buford, how I miss you
This world will never know,
If tears and sighs could bring you here
You would have been here long ago.

The rose that is dearest and rarest,
Is the one that is killed with the frost,
The love that was purest and fairest
Is the one that I have lost.

No one knows my longing;
No one sees me weep.
I shed my tears from an aching heart,
While others are fast asleep.

I often think of my darling
When I am all alone.
For memory is the only thing
that grief can call its own.

By his lonely mother,
Mrs. L. A. Coleman.
